

Table of Contents

Part One: Function & Process

Green Functionalism – A brief sketch of its history and ideas in the USA and Germany

Thomas Hauck and Daniel Czechowski

Carefully radical or radically careful? Ecology as design motif

Greet de Block

The City That Never Was – Engaging Speculative Urbanization through the logics of Landscape

Christopher Marcinkoski

Landscape as energy infrastructure: ecologic approaches and aesthetic implications of design

Daniela Perrotti

Landscape Machines, designerly concept and framework for an evolving discourse on living system design

Paul A Roncken, Sven Stremke, Riccardo Maria Pulselli

Problems of the Odumian Theory of Ecosystems

Georg Hausladen

Part Two: Culture & Specificity

The Machine and the Garden

Thomas Juel Clemmensen

Infrastructure design as a catalyst for landscape transformation: research-by-design on the structuring potential of regional public transportation

Matthias Blondia and Erik de Deyn

Beyond Infrastructure and Superstructure – Intermediating Landscapes

Sören Schöbel and Daniel Czechowski

Landscapes of variance: working the gap between design and nature

Ed Wall and Mike Dring

Designing Integral Urban Landscapes – On the End of Nature and the Beginning of Cultures

Stefan Kurath

Counterpoint: The Musical Analogy, Periodicity and Rural Urban Dynamics

Matthew Skjonsberg

Part Three: Governance & Instruments

A transatlantic lens on Green Infrastructure Planning and Ecosystem Services: Assessing Implementation in Berlin and Seattle

Rieke Hansen, Emily Lorange Rall, Stefan Pauleit

The concept of "new nature" – a paradigm shift in how to deal with complex spatial questions

Susanne Kost

Ecological Network Planning – Exemplary habitat connectivity projects in Germany

Manuel Schweiger

Planting the Desert: Cultivating Green Wall Infrastructure

Rosetta Sarah Elkin

Designing for Uncertainty The Case of Canaan, Haiti

Johann-Christian Hannemann, Christian Werthmann, Thomas Hauck

Part Four: Applied Design

Water-Sensitive Design of Open Space Systems Ecological Infrastructure Strategy for Metropolitan Lima, Peru

Eva Nemcova, Bernd Eisenberg, Rossana Poblet, Antje Stokman

Green Infrastructure: performance, appearance, economy and working method

Jack Ahern, Paulo Pellegrino, Newton Becker

The Caribbean Landscape Cyborg: Designing Green Infrastructure for La Parguera, Puerto Rico

José Juan Terrasa-Soler, Laura Lugo-Caro, Mery Bingen

Forests and Trees in the City: Southwest Flanders and the Mekong Delta

Kelly Shannon and Bruno de Meulder